San Francisco's Welcome Ambassadors The San Francisco Welcome Ambassadors will also have staff throughout the weekend. You can find them in their orange uniforms near the Cable Car Turnaround ready to provide directions or suggestions for area attractions and restaurants. They are also available for escorts if needed.

The San Francisco Police Department will also be out in force as a presence to ensure that no outside groups cause issues for our delegation. They are there for our protection only and not to impede in your experience and enjoyment of the Summit. We are aware of some of the issues our community has encountered with other law enforcement agencies and want to reassure you that we have addressed this with the commanding officers and the mayor's office to ensure that we will not have those issues. In the unlikely event that you feel you have experienced any unwarranted behavior, please bring that to the attention of the Summit Registration Desk as soon as possible so we can address it.
